

Grouping and classifying living things knowledge organiser

- Mammal – An animal with a spine, fur or hair on its body, and feeds its young on milk.

- Bird – An animal with a spine, feathers, wings and a beak.

- Fish – Animals that live in water and have fins and gills. Most fish have scales.

- Amphibian – An animal with a spine that lives on land and in water.

- Reptile – An animal with a spine and dry scales on its body.

- Vertebrate – An animal with a spine.

- Invertebrate – An animal without a spine.

- Exoskeleton – A hard covering on the outside of the body.

- Insect – A small invertebrate that has three body sections, six legs and antennae.

- Flowering plant – A plant that can produce flowers and fruit.

- Non-flowering plant – A plant that does not produce flowers and fruit.

